BRIEF OVERVIEW

Valley of Flowers

The Valley of Flowers, located in the Chamoli district of Uttarakhand, is a UNESCO World Heritage Site known for its breathtaking natural beauty and rich biodiversity. Situated at an altitude of around 3,658 meters, this high-altitude Himalayan valley blooms with over 500 species of alpine flowers during the monsoon months, typically from July to early September. The valley is a haven for nature lovers, botanists, and trekkers, offering mesmerizing views of snow-capped peaks, waterfalls, and lush meadows. The trek to the Valley of Flowers begins from Govindghat, leading to Ghangaria and then further into the valley, making it a moderate-level trek that usually takes 5–6 days. Along the way, travelers may also visit nearby attractions like Hemkund Sahib, a sacred Sikh pilgrimage site, and the scenic town of Joshimath. The valley is also home to rare Himalayan wildlife, including the elusive snow leopard, musk deer, and various colorful birds. Camping is not permitted inside the valley, and access is regulated through permits issued at Ghangaria.

We had booked the package via tourmyholiday for Kedarnath and Badrinath, Yamunotri & Gangotri. We were overall satisfied and happy, but I did share my feedback with Mr. Ashish already that the hotels and driver was awesome. I will definitely recommend you to the others in my family and friends. Thanks for making our Chardham trip memorable.
